

Seamless ways to get paid.

Get started

PayPal

News / Scottish News

Dandy Dons back on song as Harry Barry football anthem from nearly 40 years ago features in Sir Alex Ferguson documentary

by Jane Barrie

February 28, 2021, 9:00 am

Sir Alex Ferguson

A football anthem from nearly 40 years ago is making a comeback in a new film about Sir Alex Ferguson.

European Song, written by the late Scottish composer Harry Barry, celebrated Aberdeen FC's victory in the European Cup Winners' Cup in 1983.

Now it's in the documentary Sir Alex Ferguson: Never Give In, which was directed by Ferguson's son Jason as the football legend recovered from a brain haemorrhage in 2018.

Sir Alex said: "Losing my memory was my biggest fear when I suffered the haemorrhage."

Jira Software

Plan, track, release, and report, even faster

Try it free

Starts at $10/month

DC THOMSON Shop

GARDENING COLLECTIONS

SAVE UP TO HALF PRICE!

"In the making of the film I was able to revisit the most important moments of my life, good and bad.

"Having Jason direct the film has ensured an honest and intimate account."

Jim Leighton, Gordon Strachan, Alex McLeish, Willie Miller, Mark McGhee and winning scorers Eric Black and John Hewitt all sang on the record.

It was pressed as a 7in single in the Dons' red and white colours and had to be reissued when initial supplies of 100,000 copies ran out.

The documentary Sir Alex Ferguson: Never Give In premieres at the Glasgow Film Festival on March 6 and will be shown in cinemas from May 27 if restrictions are lifted, and on Amazon Prime Video from May 29.

Lifestyle with DC Thomson Shop

7 Creative Cocktail Recipes from the Angus Glens
March 5, 2021

Beautiful Perennials to Consider Introducing to your Garden
February 25, 2021

6 Easy & Delicious Recipes to Try Cooking at Home
February 24, 2021

Read More

Sir Alex Ferguson: I feared I'd never speak again after brain operation. I was terrified

Sir Alex Ferguson feared he would never speak again after brain operation

BIG INTERVIEW – David Moyes: It's been some journey, and I can't wait to join the likes of Sir Alex in the 1,000 Club

The SUNDAY POST

Get your favourite newspaper delivered direct to your door

CALL: 01382 575555
EMAIL: newspapersales@dctmedia.co.uk

Don't miss

Scotland Covid-19 update: Meet-up restrictions to be eased across the country from Friday

Scotland's older LGBTI+ community to be honoured in unique Coming Back Out Ball this summer

Undersea sound devices ban plan doesn't go far enough say campaigners

The Makar's Malt: Jackie Kay marks the end of her tenure as Scotland's national poet with a commemorative whisky

Rangers seal Scottish

Enjoy the convenience of having The Sunday Post delivered as a digital ePaper straight to your smartphone, tablet or computer.

Subscribe for only £5.49 a month and enjoy all the benefits of the printed paper as a digital replica.

Subscribe